EMERGENCY & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING CONSOLIDATED HOMELESS GRANT

An emergency rental assistance program primarily used to rapidly rehouse homeless individuals and families and victims fleeing domestic violence. These funds can be utilized to assist with first, last and/or security and rental assistance on a month-to-month basis. It may also be used for homeless prevention by paying past due rent.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS BASIC FOOD OUTREACH

BFO has the goal of making sure that people are aware of, and have access to, the Basic Food Assistance Program (SNAP) ultimately reducing hunger and food insecurity in our area.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS CAREGIVER COFFEE & SUPPORT GROUPS

These groups are a safe place to meet for people who are taking care of a family member. It is a place to talk about the joys and frustrations that come with providing care for a loved one. It is a judgment-free environment to get support, find resources and new ideas. Coffee and food are provided. Groups are held twice a month and are located in Pullman, Colfax and Malden. All unpaid caregivers are welcome to attend.

ENERGY ASSISTANCE, WEATHERIZATION, & HOME REPAIRS WEATHERIZATION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The Weatherization Assistance Program (WAP) enables low-income families to reduce their energy costs by increasing the energy efficiency of their homes while ensuring their health and safety.

VICTIM SERVICES SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexual assault is any form of sexual activity that happens without a person's permission. Sexual assault does not always include sexual intercourse and can include any contact with private body parts that you don't want, don't agree to, or are coerced/forced to do. It can also include showing someone sexual images that they do not wish to see or sharing sexual images of a person without their consent. Our services are free, confidential, and non-judgmental.

EMERGENCY & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING HOUSING & ESSENTIAL NEEDS

The Housing and Essential Needs program (HEN) is a referral-based program focused on assisting single adults who are temporarily or permanently disabled and unable to work. This program can provide a hygiene bag, homeless prevention, and rapid rehousing assistance for as long as DSHS determines them to be eligible.

EMERGENCY & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING GOLD STAR SHELTER

The Gold Star Shelter is a 7-bed facility set up for communal living. The primary objective of the shelter is to assist clients in becoming stable in their housing. The shelter serves homeless veterans above all other situations, but can also serve general homeless males, provided space is available.

TRANSPORTATION VOLUNTEER RIDES

Volunteer transportation is available, primarily for necessary appointments such as medical and social services usually to larger communities.

Note: Dispatch is located in the Colville – Main Office

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

The Northeast Washington Early Childhood Program helps children and families prepare for kindergarten and beyond. Our Head Start, Early Childhood Education and Assistance Program (ECEAP, pronounced e—cap) and Access to Baby & Childhood Dentistry programs help to meet our Mission. Our preschool classrooms support the mental, social, and emotional development of children from age 3 to age 5. Program services are responsive to each child and family's ethnic, cultural, and linguistic heritage. Enrollment is at no cost to a family and includes preschool education, health services coordination, and family support services.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS KINSHIP CARE

Our Kinship Navigator provides grandparents and relatives who are raising children, connections with community resources such as health, financial, legal services, support groups, training and emergency funds. Kinship services help kinship families establish or maintain greater self-sufficiency and long-term stability needed to keep their children out of the foster care system.

VICTIM SERVICES VOLUNTEER PROGRAM WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE? VOLUNTEER!

Volunteers play an essential role in supporting survivors. We provide all necessary training and education to our volunteers. As a new volunteer, you will join a community of supportive people that all have the same goal: supporting survivors, giving hope, and preventing violence.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS HEALTH HOME PROGRAM

Services to support participants who have serious chronic conditions and have social service needs. The Health Home Program provides care coordination of medical, behavioral health and long-term services and support for individuals of all ages. It is a Medicaid/Medicare benefit now available at no cost to the participant. The program supports participants in improving their quality of life, helps with post-hospital care, helps manage multiple providers, assist with getting to appointments, identifies helpful community resources, and helps participants get connected to available benefits.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS CAREGIVER SUPPORT PROGRAM

Program provides resources and support to unpaid family caregiver so that they can continue to provide good care for as long as possible. This program keeps families together in the community and prevents/puts off the need for more costly institutional care. Caregiver Support program services are available to any unpaid caregiver over the age of 18 providing care to a loved-one over the age of 18.

EMERGENCY & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING STEVENS COUNTY EMERGENCY SHELTER

The Stevens County Emergency Shelter is a 4-unit facility consisting of 12 beds and one fully ADA accessible unit. The primary objective of the shelter is to assist clients in becoming stable in housing. The shelter serves women with children and female domestic violence victims above all other situations, but can also serve general homeless females, provided space is available.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS TAILORED SUPPORT FOR OLDER ADULTS

Provides personalized support at home for individuals over the age of 55 who require assistance with personal care and household tasks and do not have a caregiver. There are functional and financial requirements for program eligibility.

SENIOR LEGAL ASSISTANCE

Legal Assistance is made available to lower-income seniors age 60+. Qualified recipients will receive a one-time consultation with a participating attorney.

VICTIM SERVICES VICTIMS OF CRIME

If you are the victim of a crime, our knowledgeable victim advocates are here for you. We can offer legal advocacy, emergency financial assistance, safety measures and planning, and many other services you may not be aware of. We serve victims of all crime types, including but not limited to:

- Your home is located in Ferry, Pend Oreille, Lincoln, or Stevens County
- You own or are in the process of buying your home and/or land
- You plan on living in your home for at least one year
- You have hazard insurance
- The improvements you wish to make will meet county codes
- You have been unable to qualify for a loan because of your income

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE PROGRAM

Program assists those who may need additional assistance managing their Social Security or fixed sources of income. Our financial counselor works directly with clients or their appointed representatives to ensure security in housing, food, and medical needs. Through financial management, our payee services provide protection from financial abuse and victimization. Our clients achieve greater financial stability and independence.

HOMEOWNERSHIP HOME BUYERS PROGRAM

With Rural Resources, the dream of home ownership is within your reach. We offer education and counseling to connect homebuyers of all income levels to the information and resources you need. We also provide counseling and assistance in linking first-time homebuyers and previous homeowners to a variety of different down-payment assistance programs and home loans.

VICTIM SERVICES TRIBAL PROGRAM

The Tribal Program seeks to provide community-based advocacy and violence, abuse, and crime prevention programming in a culturally responsive manner to Indigenous survivors, Descendants, and their families. The Tribal Program building, located in Inchelium on the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, is named sn̓x̓əstwilxtn, which translates to “the place where you heal yourself”.

TRANSPORTATION COMMUTER BUS

We offer a fixed route service at 50 cents per one-way trip between Kettle Falls, Colville and Chewelah for morning and late afternoon commuters. (Passes can be purchased at the Rural Resources main office in $20 denominations for 40 trips.) Transfers occur in Colville for passengers traveling between Kettle Falls and Chewelah.

EMPLOYMENT TRAINING & SUPPORT

We help you explore training options that lead to a credential and if enrolled, also provide assistance with tuition and training costs. In addition, we may also provide Support Services such as gas vouchers, work clothes, etc. while you're in training. Examples include truck driver training (CDL), Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), welding and industrial manufacturing technology and phlebotomy. Our programs can pay tuition, books, and other training related expenses. Support Services may include the purchase of work clothes, tools, gas vouchers, auto-insurance, food handler's permit.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS INFORMATION AND REFERRAL/OPTIONS COUNSELING

This service provides information and connects individuals to resources within the community to stabilize independence. We help people make informed decisions regarding available resources to help maintain independent living within the community. Through phone calls or in-person meetings with individuals and families, we empower people to plan for their immediate and long-term needs.

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING ON THE JOB TRAINING

We reimburse employers the costs of training you and you learn an occupation while working and getting paid. Support Services such as gas vouchers, work clothes, etc. while you're participating in on-the-job training.

VICTIM SERVICES DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Domestic Violence (DV) is a pattern of assaultive and coercive behaviors, including physical, sexual, and psychological attacks, as well as economic coercion, that adults and/or adolescents use against their intimate partners to gain and maintain power and control. It involves learned behavior that is intentionally chosen by an abuser. DV occurs in heterosexual, gay, lesbian, bisexual, and trans intimate partner relationships in which the individuals are dating, married, separated, or divorced. Domestic violence knows no boundaries and affects people from all ages, races, socioeconomic levels, religions, cultures, and education levels. Our services are free, confidential, and non-judgmental.

EMERGENCY & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING HOMELESS DOCUMENT RECORDING FEES

HB2163 is primarily used to help prevent homelessness for individuals and families facing eviction and rapid rehousing for individuals and families who do not meet CHG requirements. These funds can be utilized to assist with first, last and/or security and rental assistance on a month-to-month basis.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING LOW INCOME APARTMENT RENTALS

We have 6 low-income apartment communities in 3 counties. Applications are available at our main office.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING SECTION 8 HUD HOUSING

This is a rent subsidy program funded by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). This program is designed to assist low-income families, disabled individuals and the elderly to find safe, decent and sanitary housing they can afford.

EMPLOYMENT AND TRAINING PAID WORK EXPERIENCE

If you have little or no work history, we can provide temporary paid employment so you can build your resume and develop positive work habits. In addition, we may also provide support services such as gas vouchers, work clothes, etc. while you're participating in the work experience.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS SENIOR PREVENTION CONNECTION

Assisting individuals to become more proactive in dealing with chronic health conditions, leading to longer independence in the community and greater quality of life. This is done through participation in a variety of evidence-based workshop series designed to provide encouragement and learning new tools to manage health and create a healthier life.

COMMUNITY LIVING CONNECTIONS SENIOR NUTRITION

Under-nutrition, malnutrition, isolation and depression are common among elderly hospital patients and residents of long-term care facilities. But they also affect a growing number of independent adults, particularly low-income seniors living alone. For older adults in our community, Rural Resources offers nutrition programs that help combat these issues.

HOMEOWNERSHIP FORECLOSURE PREVENTION AND DEFAULT COUNSELING

We offer help for those who are having trouble making their mortgage payments or have already fallen behind. The earlier you reach out for help, the more options you'll have. Homeowners will work on improving their finances and work with a counselor to prepare documents needed for a loan modification. We will assess your financial situation and hardship, we can explain the different workout options, provide budget counseling, assist in submitting loan modification application and facilitate.

ENERGY ASSISTANCE, WEATHERIZATION, & HOME REPAIRS ENERGY ASSISTANCE

Home is where the heat is. No one should be forced to decide between paying for food and paying for heat this winter. If you or someone you know is facing this choice or is just having trouble paying their utility bills, Rural Resources Community Action can help. In cooperation with other agencies and with local utilities, we offer a number of different programs to assist:

- Low-income families
- Disabled individuals
- Seniors on low and fixed incomes
- Residents in danger of losing their heat source
- Utility customers in need

We also provide low- to no-cost weatherization help and energy-saving tips and information.

VICTIM SERVICES COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT DEPARTMENT

The Community Engagement Department is responsible for outreach, education, and prevention activities related to violence, crime, and abuse.

Services We Provide:

- Materials and information about Rural Resources Victim Services for community organizations, system partners, and/or potential clients
- Materials and information about various types of victimization and abuse
- Presentations related to crime victimization information or agency services
- Trainings that build skills around a variety of topics, including but not limited to victimization, communication strategies, supporting survivors, cultural competency, trauma-informed care, etc.
- Prevention programs that address underlying causes of violence and abuse to prevent first-time perpetration of crimes or abuse.
- Please contact the Community Engagement Program Manager if you are interested in any of these services.

Washington State Health and Food Benefits

Why would I use these sites?

There are many reasons to use these sites. First, these sites offer you the ability to check for various services and programs that may be available to you. Second, it provides a vast array of information on resources available in the community. Third, you can apply for some programs on these sites - specifically health care and food benefits.

Health Care the Washington Health Plan Finder offers healthcare coverage for children, parents/caretakers with children, pregnant women, or adults age 18 to 64 years old. For information regarding available services or to apply for benefits, visit www.healthplanfinder.org

Food Benefits Washington Connection offers a fast and easy way for families and individuals to to apply for a variety of services such as Food, Cash, Child-Care, Long-Term Care, and Medicare Savings Programs. Individuals that are age 65 or older, blind or disabled, may also apply for assistance. Apply for services online at www.washingtonconnection.org

Or visit our Home & Community Services Colville Office at:
1100 S. Main St. Colville, WA. 99114. Or call (509) 563-0140 (Primary Phone), or 888-437-0516 (Alternate Phone).

Who are these sites for?

These sites are designed for anyone who would like to find out what benefits and programs they might qualify for in the state of Washington. The online application is for residents of Washington State to apply for Federal, State, and local benefits.

What qualifies as a Washington State Resident?

A resident is someone who is living in Washington and is not receiving assistance from another state or tribe. A resident under special circumstances for nursing facilities is someone who enters Washington solely for medical care in a nursing facility. A person placed in a nursing facility by another state, is considered a resident of the state that placed them. Residency requirements for Temporary Visa Holders must first meet citizenship and alien status as they are stated in:

<http://app.leg.wa.gov/wac/default.aspx?cite=388-424>

How long will it take to check eligibility and apply?

The See if I Qualify screening may take as little as 15 minutes. The online application, Apply Now can take about an hour to complete. There is no cost to you for the "See if I Qualify" screening or submitting an application.

When will I know which programs, I am eligible for?

When you have entered all of your information in the See if I Qualify screening, a results page displays showing benefits and programs you may qualify for.

Will the online application save my information if my computer browser times out?

The online application automatically saves each time you navigate to a new page. However, if you have not created a SecureAccess Washington (SAW) account, you may not be able to access your application information again.

Now that my application has been submitted, what do I need to do next?

If you are submitting an application online during regular business hours, it is available for processing within just a few minutes. If you are submitting an application online after normal working hours (after 5pm, or on weekends/holidays) it will be dated as received on the next regular business day. Some programs require an interview, others do not. You will receive a letter in the mail notifying you of next steps. You may be contacted to provide additional information or proof of your circumstances such as:

- Social Security Numbers if not already provided
- Proof of income such as: copies of checks, check stubs, letters, or statements from anyone who gave your household money.
- Proof of resources you may have, such as vehicle registration, bank statements, stocks, bonds, or life insurance policies.
- Proof of cost of childcare or dependent adult care such as a receipt from your provider.
- Proof of housing costs such as mortgage payments, property tax payments, homeowner's insurance, rent receipts, copy of your lease, utility bills, letter from your landlord.
- Other proof such as unpaid medical bills, health insurance premiums, pregnancy with due date, changes to your immigration or citizenship status, adoption support or foster care payments.

If you applied for cash, medical, food assistance, or childcare subsidy programs.

Your application will be sent to DSHS for processing; except, if you are applying for the Child Care Subsidy Program your information will be sent to the Department of Children, Youth, and Families for processing. To process your application for cash and food assistance faster, call us between 8am and 5pm, Monday through Friday at 1-877-501-2233; or visit us in person at 1100 S. Main St. Colville, WA.

To process your application for childcare, you can call the Department of Children, Youth, and Families between 8am and 5pm Monday through Friday at 1-844-626-8687.
